LOS ANGELES COUNTY ASSESSOR JEFFREY PRANG ANNOUNCES HIRING OF PUBLIC INFORMATION OFFICER

LOS ANGELES, CA - Today, Los Angeles County Assessor Jeffrey Prang announced the hiring of Michael Kapp to his executive team as Public Information Officer. Mr. Kapp will be in charge of all external and internal communications in the Assessor's Office.

"Michael Kapp brings much-needed experience and expertise to the Office of the Assessor," said Assessor Jeffrey Prang. "He will be a valuable addition to our ongoing efforts to publicize the services we offer County residents."

Mr. Kapp comes to the Office of the Assessor with both government and nonprofit experience. He has worked in the California State Legislature, the House of Representatives, and the United States Senate. A native Angeleno, Mr. Kapp brings a wealth of statewide and local communications experience to the Assessor's Office.

"I am excited to work for Assessor Prang and LA County residents," said Michael Kapp. "I look forward to doing my part in ensuring that the public knows the important work we do on their behalf."

In addition to his communications and legislative experience, Mr. Kapp holds a Bachelor's degree from the University of California, Berkeley, a Master's degree from the University of Chicago, and a law degree from the University of California, Davis School of Law.

For media inquiries, Michael Kapp may be reached by phone at (213) 332-1345 or by email at MKapp@assessor.lacounty.gov.

Home to more than 10 million residents, Los Angeles County is the most populous and one of the most diverse counties in the United States. The Office of the Assessor is responsible for valuing more than 2.6 million properties with a value of over $1.2 trillion. For more information, please visit <http://assessor.lacounty.gov/>.
