"This is my first report to the public on the significant progress we have made in the year since I was sworn-in as Assessor," said Assessor Prang. "I promised the residents of this County that I would improve the operations of my Office, increase transparency and accountability, and adhere to the highest ethical standards. The future looks bright as we move into the New Year."

The One Year Report focuses on Assessor Prang's priorities, which are (1) open data and technology modernization; (2) public access and responsiveness; (3) community partnerships and public education; and (4) ethics, public accountability, and work culture. The One Year Report details how these priorities are being addressed, provides an outline on what the Assessor plans to embark on in the coming year, and showcases how these changes will benefit the residents of the County of Los Angeles.
