

MEDIA ADVISORY

from

LOS ANGELES COUNTY ASSESSOR

JEFFREY PRANG

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
January 26, 2018

Contact: Robert Kalonian
213.332.1345

L.A. County Assessor Jeffrey Prang to Hold Resource Seminar

Over 300 property owners and real estate professionals to participate

LOS ANGELES, CA – Los Angeles County Assessor Jeffrey Prang and senior staff from the Office of the Assessor will hold the first in a series of resource seminars.

Hosted jointly with Chinese-American Elected Officials (CEO), the first seminar will be held in South El Monte this Saturday. The seminars are part of a public awareness campaign intended to educate residents and property owners about services and tax-saving programs.

Details

ASSESSOR RESOURCE SEMINAR
Saturday, January 27, 2018
10:00 AM to 12:00 noon

RAMADA INN
1089 Santa Anita Avenue
(entrance on Fawcett Avenue)
South El Monte, CA 91733

Additional information: assessor.eventbrite.com

Assessor Jeffrey Prang leads the largest local public property assessment agency in the US. His staff of nearly 1400 appraisers and support staff are committed to identifying and appraising taxable real estate and business property and creating an accurate and timely property assessment roll. In 2017, the Assessor's Office established values for 2.56 million properties across Los Angeles County valued at a record $1.474 trillion.

###

